

THE HOLLERS OF HAMBURG, SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VIRGINIA
& THEIR DESCENDANTS

Mahlon Holler

Amanda Jennie Smith

MAHLON HOLLER was the son of Jonathan Holler & Nancy Bartell. He rode a white horse and fought in the Civil War with the 7th Virginia Cavalry, Turner Ashby's famous "Laurel Brigade." He was captured and transferred to Point Lookout POW camp in Maryland until being released at the end of the war.

AMANDA JENNIE SMITH married Mahlon Holler. They lived in Hamburg, Shenandoah County, Virginia, which is now considered part of Edinburg.

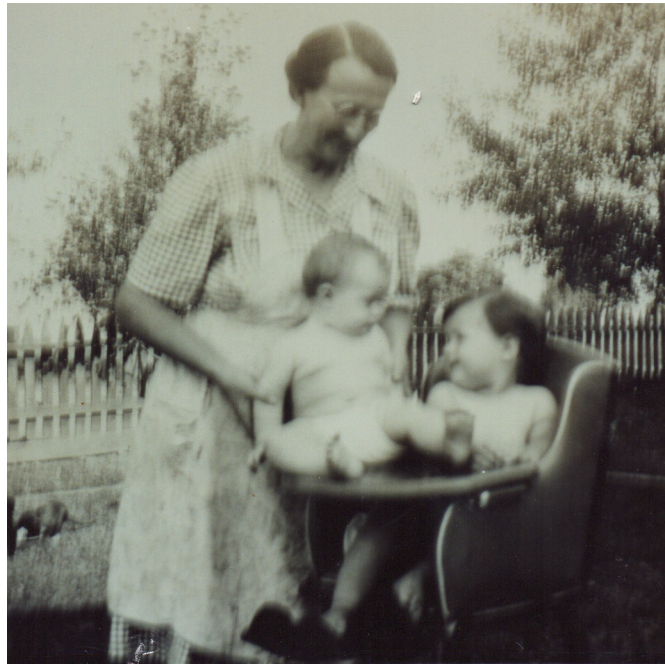

Their children, Randolph Tucker “Tuck” Holler & Wilmoth “Wilma” Ann Holler.

Randolph Tucker Holler married Annie E. Rosenberger. Their children were Samuel, Nellie, Edgar, & Clarence Holler. Below is a photo of Nellie & Samuel.

Nellie married Lester Dellinger. Here she is with two of her daughters, Gay & Helen.

Nellie standing on the right at her daughter, Darlene Dellinger's wedding reception.

Wilmoth Ann Holler married Napoleon Bonaparte Fultz, also of Hamburg. Their children were Irene and Lucy (girls standing in back), John (died in infancy), Lee and Dewey (boys standing in front), Frenchie (in mother's lap), Roy (in father's lap), & Charles Clinton Fultz (born after this photo was taken). They left Shenandoah County in 1908 and moved to Illinois, then Missouri, and then Kansas. Charles Clinton Fultz was only one year old when they left Virginia. Joseph Earl (standing in the very back), was Napoleon's son from a previous marriage to Nina Clanahan. He remained in Virginia.

Charles Clinton Fultz & his wife, Fannie Mae Eggert. Their children were Charles Leslie & Wilma Mae Fultz. They lived in Leavenworth, Kansas. Charles Leslie Fultz joined the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War. He left Kansas and settled in California. His father, Charles Clinton Fultz visited Shenandoah County in 1959.

He re-united with his step-brother, Joseph Earl (back turned), in Hamburg. (Charles is the one facing the camera.)

Charles Leslie Fultz married Bernice Dolores Frias. Their children are Galen, Valerie, Wade, Kevin, & Corrine Fultz. They live in California. Valerie died in 2002. Charles died in 2005.

Charles Leslie Fultz visited Shenandoah County in 1993. Here he is with his Holler cousins, Fleta Holler, Gay Funkhouser, & Lawrence Holler. Fleta & Lawrence were Edgar & Beulah Holler's children. Gay was Nellie & Lester Dellinger's daughter.

Charles Leslie Fultz & cousins during his visit in 1993: Gay Funkhouser, Welby Fultz, & Darlene Lindamood. Welby Fultz was Earl Fultz's son. Darlene was Nellie and Lester Dellinger's daughter. They visited at her house, pictured below.

Corrine Fultz Ardoin visited Shenandoah County in October 2015. She met her Holler cousins, William Randolph Holler & his son, Scott Holler. William Randolph Holler is the son of Edgar & Beulah Holler. She also visited the New Bethel Church Cemetery in Edinburg where Mahlon Holler and his wife, Amanda, were buried.

The Holler home on Headquarters Road in old Hamburg, now part of Edinburg, October 2015.

The Fultz's and Holler's originated from Germany as Voltz and Haller. When immigrants came to America, the names became Foltz and Hollar. Eventually, some spelled the names Fultz and Holler. Below, are Holler and Foltz Roads near Edinburg in Shenandoah County, Virginia.

